For your reflection are the following quotes from Dorothy Day:

Dorothy Day (November 8, 1897 – November 29, 1980) was an American journalist, social activist. She became a key figure in the Catholic Worker Movement and earned a national reputation as a political radical, perhaps the most famous radical in American Catholic Church history. The Church has opened the cause for her possible canonization, which was accepted by the Holy See for investigation. Due to this, the Church refers to her with the title of Servant of God.

“We have all known the long loneliness and we have learned that the only solution is love and that love comes with community.”

“I really only love God as much as I love the person I love the least.”

“I have long since come to believe that people never mean half of what they say, and that it is best to disregard their talk and judge only their actions.”

“The Gospel takes away our right forever, to discriminate between the deserving and the undeserving poor.”

“What we would like to do is change the world--make it a little simpler for people to feed, clothe, and shelter themselves as God intended them to do. And, by fighting for better conditions, by crying out unceasingly for the rights of the workers, the poor, of the destitute--the rights of the worthy and the unworthy poor, in other words--we can, to a certain extent, change the world; we can work for the oasis, the little cell of joy and peace in a harried world. We can throw our pebble in the pond and be confident that its ever widening circle will reach around the world. We repeat, there is nothing we can do but love, and, dear God, please enlarge our hearts to love each other, to love our neighbor, to love our enemy as our friend.”

“You will know your vocation by the joy that it brings you. You will know. You will know when it's right.”

40th Anniversary Ste. Anne Pilgrimage Event at Holy Rosary Parish, Minto. There will be a gathering for all pilgrims who have gone to Ste. Anne de Beaupre sometime over the last 40 years. This year marks the 40th Anniversary of the start of our annual pilgrimage. There will be a Mass on Tuesday, July 24th @ 5:30 pm in the Church with Fr. David Fulton followed by light refreshments the parish hall.

Revitalizing Our Diocese: Becoming Missionary Disciples (Fr. John Jennings)

Revitalization of our diocese has a purpose. The aim is to create parishes full of life and active faith. We are called to be parishes filled with missionary disciples. As Pope Francis expressed it: “The Church which ‘goes forth’ is a community of missionary disciples who take the first step.... In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelizers.” (Pope Francis. The Joy of the Gospel, 24, 28). The first step is being open to everyone, accepting each and every person as a wonder-filled expression of God in our midst, just as Jesus did.

Did you ever notice how heads turn and attention is focused on a parent who enters the room with an infant in arms? Even our littlest ones have an impact on us. In the Gospel read two weeks ago (Mark 6:1-6) Jesus enters his home town. Nobody wants to pay attention to him. He is too common. They know him too well. He has been among them too long. He is too ORDINARY.

Yet, the infant captures our attention. Perhaps everyone can capture our attention, if we make the effort to recognize the wonder of each person. Evangelization begins when we pay attention to one another.

Jesus shared the message of Good News. Like a prophet he spoke God’s dream for all humanity and he revealed it in what he did. It all started with an encounter. Jesus met people where they were – by a lake, in a village, at a well, in a sick room, at a meal. He began with the attention he paid to those he met.

Too often, perhaps, we miss or ignore the opportunities all around us to share the Gospel. Life seems too ORDINARY. The situations of life and the persons we meet are too routine. In a recent article Fr. Richard Rohr reflected on what it would be like if we were fully aware that each and every person we meet is “in the image of God.”

Rohr challenges us: “Imagine what the world would be like if we treated others [all others] with inherent and equal dignity and respect, seeing the divine DNA in ourselves and everyone else too – regardless of ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation, nationality, appearance, or social class.” (Richard Rohr’s Daily Meditation, Wednesday, 4 July 2018)

Jesus did. Evangelization is about sharing this Good News.
