The St. John XXIII Centre for Catholic Thought at St. Thomas University invites you to a year-long reading group--Magnificat: Catholic Woman Writers. Join us as we explore the beautiful and often provocative contributions that Catholic women have made to the Catholic Intellectual Tradition. No background is necessary, all sessions are free, and all reading materials will be provided. Meetings will be the last Thursday of every month at St. Thomas, starting September 27th. More info contact Michael Pallotto at stjohnxxiiicentre@gmail.com.

Information session for potential volunteers with our 'Outreach Ministry' on Wednesday, October 3rd at 7:15 pm. This session will offer you possible ways to be involved in the following: Fredericton Community Kitchen, Food Bank Drop Off at St. Dunstan's Church Site, Wilmot United Church 'Saturday Evening Drop-in', and the Downtown Health Center. This will be an update on what we are doing presently with these areas of outreach and what is needed from volunteers.

Venezuela180 is an international project that delivers food relief to Venezuela. The project started in Fredericton in the fall of 2017 after students from St. Thomas University realized they needed to help the people of Venezuela. Since 2014, the country has been experiencing a humanitarian crisis leaving thousands of people without access to food while millions have left the country in search of new opportunities. This is perhaps the worst crisis that a Latin American country has faced in the 21st century. To continue alleviating the hunger in the country, members of Venezuela180 are doing a bake sale after mass. We encourage you to come and support us in putting food in the tables of hundreds of children and families in Venezuela." Bake Sale will be Sept 29th after 5:00 pm Mass and Sept 30th after 9:00 am & 11:30 am Masses in the Monsignor Boyd Family Centre.
